DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sasaki et al. (US 5,607,718).

Sasaki describes an etching solution by mixing: a colloidal suspension of SiO₂, which forms silicate ions, with TMAH, and water (col. 3, line 16-17; col. 5, line 43-45; col. 10, line 16-26; col. 11, line 5; col. 15, line 62).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sasaki as applied to claim 2 above, and further in view of Lin (US 6,315,635).

Unlike claimed invention Sasaki doesn't describe heating the etchant to a T substantially above the room T. Lin describes an etchant for polishing where he teaches heating the T of the etchant above 30 degrees Celsius (claimed substantially above room T) (col. 8, line 11-17). It would have been obvious for one skilled in the art to modify Sasaki's etchant in light of Lin because Lin teaches that raising the T of the etchant would enhance the overall polishing rate and improve uniformity of polishing across the substrate surface (col. 55-60).

Art Unit: 1765

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 4-9 are allowable because applied prior art doesn't suggest or teach of addition of an oxidizer into the etchant at a time later than 10 minutes following immersion of sample comprised of silicon in the etchant.

Election/Restrictions

6. Applicant's election of claims 1-9 in the reply filed on 4/20/04 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
